

Saeta al Cristo / Arrow to the Christ.

Una saeta le canto
al cristo, uno de ellos, que intentó cambiar el Mundo y linchado resultó.

Ay, quién pudiera evitar el suicidio del Planeta al que ha llegado el Ser Humano, Fin de toda Humanidad.

Y le llevó al linchamiento, para mostrar al Mundo entero el error y verdadero Crimen Humano atroz.

Muéstrate ante semejantes si no consigues realizar, dos o tres veces se ha dicho, y ejecutado muchas más.

Aunque te cambiaron el significado, tu intento cobra sentido, el camino recorrido en el Fin del Mundo se sabe ya. (Se sabe ya).

Ofreciste lo que pedían, y de nada sirvió, (de nada) porque no querían eso, (no) sino la Muerte, en toda ocasión. (La muerte, la muerte).

Arrow to the Christ.

I sing an arrow
to the Christ, one of them, that he tried to change the world and lynched he turned out.

Oh, who could avoid the suicide of the Planet to which the Human Being has arrived, End of all Humanity.

And led him to the lynching, to show the whole world the mistake and true heinous Human Crime.

Show yourself to others
if you can't do it,
two or three times it has been said, and executed many more.

Although they changed your meaning,
your attempt makes sense, the road traveled at the End of the World it is already known. (It is already known).

You offered what they asked for,
and it was useless, (useless) because they didn't want that, (no) but Death, on every occasion. (Death, death).

Jesús Estrada. www.nuevaera.info