Oh, if as children we had been able to say: "I thank you for teaching me, but if you humiliate me by doing so, I do not accept it because, by provoking me to kill you, you force me to hate, since I will not be able to kill you until the End of the World. You condemn me to Death in Life."

Provoking to be killed is to take the Almightyism of Death. You pretend it's bravery, when it's Cowardice. Best example: The Nazis. So did Europe by bringing NATO up to the Russian border... It is a general attitude. This Cowardice is what you feel Eternal of you because you can't accept that you redirect your self-hatred, for being a Cowardly Submissive, towards... You have to Suicide the Planet by taking revenge on Humanity upon yourself by losing Existence due to your own and others' Cowardice. Once Reality is exposed, you choose Paradise until death, which is to accept Existence; or you submit and allow the Struggle of God, the Winner, the Total Humiliator, who is Corpse worshipped by the corpses of All on Earth, with the mark of Coward on your forehead.

There is no reason for Existence, it does not exist Infinity, and Nothingness cannot be conceived. Existence will end in Nothingness, with no final outcome. Yours at your death and the Total. The meaning of Existence is the increase of consciousness, Understanding.

Let's move on to Global Direct Democracy, chaotic, without Presidency and without Money. At www.nuevaera.info the basics of Paradise, documents, tales, songs... and the simple plan.
