The Rescue 10-31-26.

Humanity lives, from its origins, fighting to the death. Animals do not do it, nor did hominids. To fight to the death is to include others in your suicide. You consider that rejecting and Humiliating Existence makes you free and brave, but you know that you establish an irrevocable commitment that you feel Eternal. The human being Victor of the Human Struggle will be God, the One who Humiliates All Humanity by taking the Almightism of Death. Whoever kills the one who is going to be God, becomes an aspirant to God, and God continues to win.

Death is Nothingness, and it cannot be conceived. You simply cease to exist. No one has ever believed to be Immortal. If you accept Humiliation, you will take the one practiced by you to your grave in the form of a treasure, setting up the Human Labyrinth, which is the metaphorical expression of the Human Play. Now, if I do not submit as you do, you get angry without acknowledging the cause, and we have discord that does not listen to reason.

We are already in the Collective Suicide of Humanity, entering the previous Hell. All Humanity of All Time in Eternal Humiliation, having rejected Existence. Heaven is corpses worshipping the Corpse of their Humiliator. All the Signs in the graves are screaming for you to accept this Rescue of the Christ of the End of the World, the Salvation of the living and the dead. You are committing such a heinous Crime against Existence, against yourself, that you are running towards the Destruction of the Planet because you know that Death is Nothingness and it will not matter, but you cannot die leaving this Shame behind you. What despair and what rage! You are Dead in Life. Do not fight to the death. Resurrect and live as long as you exist.
