

More widely exposed.

Authority arises with ritual burial, provoking Existential Anguish due to the loss of Existence. Authority compels us to lose it by demanding submission, thus conferring Death in Life. At age three, the Pact with Death is made. The individual joins the Crime Against Existence in exchange for not dying. And they swear that their crime will never be revealed because they will die beforehand or participate in Humanity's Collective Suicide.

Lean out understand this fills you with Basic Terror. You're being Cowardly in the face of Existence by stealing it instead of accepting or rejecting it, indirectly and collectively committing suicide. Destruction, disrespect, competition, degradation... all excused by the fact that you didn't ask to be born (individual suicide, my dear). And you can't fix it because your eternal essence is your Cowardice, which will lead you to the End of the World, alive or dead, where this Rescue will take place. And here we are, deciding whether we, those of us alive now, will Resurrect until death claims us, or whether Humanity will remain in Eternal Cowardice.

Madness, what humankind fears most, is knowing you are Dead in Life and there is no solution. Every human being is a guardian against Existential Anguish flooding the World. And they act with Authority, which in turn provokes Existential Anguish. See Psychiatry, the final step in the barrier.

Human violence consists of delving into Existential Anguish to visualize it alongside Basic Terror. Of course, there's no rest from that. Every human being needs to see Existential Anguish in others and in themselves. You need to verify time and again that you are safe from it, to prove to yourself that it doesn't affect you because you're not crazy, which allows you to endure and inflict any humiliation without feeling Existential Anguish, and without reaching Basic Terror. And it reaches grotesque extremes, like Nazism. Authority cannot stop at any point. Don't expect a benevolent dictator.

This leads to the End of the World, which we are already experiencing, and in which there are two widely prophesied possibilities. 1- The flooding of Existential Anguish for all Human Beings, until Basic Terror and Death, in the Planet's Suicide. 2- This Rescue by Christ, passing those Human Beings who are still alive into Paradise until Death overtakes us, that is, Resurrection to Life, to Freedom. And all of Humanity will not remain in Eternal Cowardice. Christ has always been the Savior, the Redeemer. The One who opens the Door by explaining without judging.

Remember what you've always known, since you were three years old. Death is Nothingness, like not having been born, being fainting, or under general anesthesia. Nothing, not even time. It cannot be conceived, and above all, there is no possibility. Accept Existence and enjoy it while you live. Know Freedom before you die.

God would be the one who won the Struggle of Authority, Who would Humiliate All of Humanity, and their corpse would be worshipped by the corpses of all human beings, believers or not. You've all taken the Infinity. But nobody wants an Eternal Dictatorship or for anything of them to remain for All Eternity, hey, what's going to happen there? You don't think you're immortal, you just cannot die like a Coward.

Reincarnation is the sinking and reconstruction of the idea of the World, the Path of Knowledge: Learning to say this.

The Truth: There is no reason for Existence, it doesn't exist Infinity, and Nothingness cannot be conceived. Existence will end in Nothingness, with no final outcome. Yours at your death and the Total. The meaning of Existence is the increase of consciousness, Understanding.

Money is what chains us to the Humiliation of Authority, limiting, prohibiting and destroying life.

The date of the end of the world will be set by someone with access to the media, hopefully, before things get too bad.
On that day, all forms of money and payment will become worthless and useless across the entire planet.

Global Direct Democracy, chaotic, without a presidency. I won't reign, and no one will. Without Money it is very easy.

On the reference website you have more and more complete explanations, indications, the foundations of Paradise and the bases of the assemblies at "Charter of Deconstitution", "Scientific Explanation of Existence", "How to Face Death"... tales, songs...

Go on, know Freedom (regarding the Authority) before you die. Don't get yourself into Fire and don't suicide the Planet. And leave a wonderful world for our descendants.
